

Board Gives Go-Ahead On Development

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

The Antioch village board had a busy night April 21, instructing their attorney to draw up a rezoning ordinance for the Antioch Manor North development and an annexation ordinance for the proposed five-acre Wenslow property annexation off Deep Lake Rd.

Located on the west side of Rte. 83, north of North Ave. by the packing house, Antioch Manor North is a residential development scheduled to bring in 104 multi-family units that will serve a population of approximately 750.

Final approval will not be given until the ordinance is drawn and the village has a properly executed guarantee that all infrastructures (roads, water sewer, ext.) will be completed. The developers are in the process of securing an unconditional line of credit from the First National Bank of Antioch that will guarantee the project.

In other action, the board gave final approval to a pre-treatment ordinance that will require manufacturers to meet certain maximum chemical concentration levels before introducing waste into the Antioch Sanitary Sewer System. Corporations will have until April of 1987 to install treatment systems that will bring wastes up to village standards.

Trustee Robert Wilton was concerned that the requirements might be too stringent, thus serving to discourage some types of industry from locating in Antioch. "This ordinance is tougher than the EPA is on a lot of chemicals," Wilton said.

Trustee Mabel Lou Weber agreed with him but said that the water flow in the Antioch system is not strong enough to handle anything more than the levels set in the ordinance. Weber said that all industries currently in the village would be able to meet ordinance standards by the deadline.

The vote was unanimous to pass the ordinance.

Youth Of The Month

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP LIBRARY

Beth Dubek, a senior at Antioch Community High School, has been selected the "Youth of the Month" by the Antioch Exchange Club. The selection was based on Dubek's outstanding community and school involvement as well as her consistently high academic achievement throughout high school. Attending the presentation were the superintendent of ACHS and Dubek's parents. They are, from left: Gary Allen, Exchange Club member and superintendent of ACHS; Gail Dubek; Beth Dubek; and Richard Dubek.

Sponsor Safety Course

Area residents will have an opportunity to learn boating safety basics at a Ill. Dept. of Conservation boating safety course scheduled from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, April 26, at the State Bank of Antioch, according to Chuck Spillner, coordinating instructor for the class.

State legislation, which became effective in 1978, requires that persons 12 through 17 years old have a boating safety certificate before they can operate a motor-driven boat without adult supervision. The certificate is issued by the department of conservation to persons who successfully complete the boating safety course.

"This is an excellent opportunity for young people who need the course to comply with the law," Spillner said. "The course is open to the public. Anyone, regardless of age, may take the course to brush up on their boating safety habits."

The eight-hour course includes instruction in rules of the water, Illinois boating law, first aid, safety afloat, boating construction and design and other topics that will help make participants safe boaters.

Further information about the course is available by contacting the coordinating instructor at (312)395-6047.

ACHS Board Schedules Dinner

At the last regular meeting of the Antioch High School Board of Education, on April 17 President Robert Lindblad reminded the board that the annual elementary/secondary board of education and administration dinner meeting is planned for Tuesday, April 29, in the high school cafeteria.

Lindblad also announced that the annual staff recognition social for the high school staff who have served the district 15, 20, 25 and 30 years will be held at 2:45 p.m. on Monday, June 2. Also recognized at that time will be staff members who are leaving the system.

The board approved the filing of the gifted education reimbursement program for FY '87 which will be used to support gifted classes in art, drama, math, language arts and social studies. Additionally, the board approved the filing of the work experience and career exploration program.

In other action, provided no emergency school closing days are needed, the board approved Thursday, June 5 as the last day for student attendance.

ACHS Supt. Gary Allen presented a preliminary report on the school district report card and evaluation of certified school district employees, both requirements of Senate Bill 730.

The board in a final move, approved an increase in the substitute pay for 1986-87 school year to $45 per day. The current rate of $40 has been in effect for the past four years.

Antioch Library Seeks More Friends

In the spring of 1985 a group of concerned citizens formed the Antioch Library Friends (ALF). The purpose of the organization is to assist the library in developing programs to promote community interest in the knowledge and resources of the library and to provide funding for special library needs. ALF provides a channel for individuals and organizations to express ideas and make suggestions for library use and services.

Among the events and projects that have been initiated by the ALF are: the used book sale last September; the clown clinic held in November; and the Christmas tree that stands in the children's section of the library.

ALF is a not-for-profit organization with membership open to individuals, families, clubs, associations, and businesses under the direction of officers and an executive board.

Though proud of past accomplishments, the ALF wants to do even more for the library. In order to accomplish that purpose, new members are needed. Interested parties may get further information by writing to: Antioch Library Friends, P.O. Box 185, Antioch 60002.

Thompson Pledges Funds For Chain

Hundreds of people gathered outside the American Legion Hall on Rte. 12 in Fox Lake to hear Governor Jim Thompson announce his plan for the Chain O' Lakes on April 17.

Thompson arrived by helicopter at 2:15 p.m. and was welcomed by Fox Lake Mayor William Dam and Chain O' Lakes Water Management Agency Chairman John Sofietti. Both officials thanked Thompson for taking time out of his busy schedule to come out to the area.

Stepping to the outdoor podium, Thompson won a loud round of applause when he said, "I didn't take time out of my busy schedule: you are my busy schedule."

"The Chain O' Lakes is a priceless resource," Thompson said, "We can't do without it. I am committing $1.2 million to help, but this is just a beginning. Rehabilitating the chain will not be an easy task. Once we get the waste out of the lakes, we will have to decide where to put it. The $1.2 million in state funds will be used to purchase land and construct disposal facilities for the material dredged from lakes.

Continuing, Thompson said, "We will need strong local cooperation to successfully complete the project. The Departments of Conservation, Environmental Protection Agency, and the Division of Water Resources of the Department of Transportation will work with the Chain O' Lakes Water Management Authority to develop a master plan for the use and maintenance of the nine lakes."

"Tourism means jobs and we could have hundreds of thousands more of those jobs in tourism if we do our job right, and I am determined that we will do our job right."

"Forty years ago," Thompson concluded, "my father used to take my brother, Don, and me fishing on little Grassy Lake on weekends. I am looking forward to getting the Chain O' Lakes back to the condition it was in when I enjoyed it as a little boy."

Asked if the legislature would ratify his commitment of funding, Thompson said that $500,000 is a reappropriation this year and that the other $700,000 is in his proposed fiscal year 1987 budget. "I am confident that Senator Schaffer will be able to successfully steer it through the legislature," Thompson said.

Antioch High School Wins Re-Accreditation For '87

Arthur Blecke, Principal of Antioch Community High School, received notice today that the school's North Central Association accreditation has been extended through the 1985-86 school year following the review and approval of its Annual Report at the Association's Annual Meeting. Accreditation is for one year at a time and must be renewed annually.

Dr. John S. Kemp, NCA State Director at the University of Illinois, congratulated Antioch Community High School on its continued accreditation for 1985-86. He added, "The school and community should be proud of the accreditation, for this provides assurance that the school meets those minimal yet rigorous preconditions for effective education established by the association. Through this voluntary membership in the NCA, the school and the people in the district have committed themselves to the pursuit of quality in education."

Accreditation by the North Central Association ensures that the school is meeting the minimal conditions for effectiveness. By setting standards for basic operations of the school and by requiring a comprehensive evaluation once every seven years, the NCA stimulates the school towards continuous improvement.

Gelden And Eckholm Join Antioch Rotary

The Antioch Rotary Club announces that two community-minded individuals have been welcomed into the club.

The first is Rich Gelden, an electrical contractor who owns and operates Carey and Gelden Electric on Main St. in downtown Antioch. Gelden is a local boy born in Antioch. He started to work for Irv Carey back in 1963 and purchased his electrical contractor business in 1982. He lives in Bristol with his wife, Cheryl, and their children Wendy and Randy.

The Rev. Vincent J. Eckholm was also welcomed into the Rotary Club. Father Eckholm is the rector of St.

Ignatius of Antioch Episcopal Church on Main St. He brings varied experiences and achievements to the Antioch community. He is a native Chicagoan who was ordained to the priesthood in 1967. Since that time he has held a variety of parochial and social work positions including priest counselor to the Page County Divorce Court in Clarinda, Iowa, and chaplain at the Lawrence Hall School for Boys in Chicago.

At Lawrence Hall he instituted the Friendship Program, through which boys at the school were sponsored by parishes, individuals, and community service groups. This sponsoring was an act of loving friendship for these troubled young men. Sponsors provided activities (ball games, picnics, etc.) and gifts at birthdays and Christmas.

Eckholm also presided over the annual Bike-A-Thon for five years, increasing revenues generated from $3,500 to $30,000.

The Antioch Rotary Club is a group of business and professional men dedicated to serving the Antioch community and to the ideals of Rotary International. For further information, call Stan Livermore at (312)395-4200.

Jury Acquits Mundelein Teen Of Murder Charge

Kristine Locascio, the 18-year-old Mundelein High School student charged in the Dec. 6 slaying of a Vernon Hills man, was acquitted by the Lake County Circuit Court jury.

She had been held in the Lake County jail for the past four months on charges of attempted murder, armed violence, conspiracy to commit robbery and conspiracy to commit murder.

The ruling was handed down by a jury of six men and six women who deliberated for almost 10 hours before reaching a decision. The trial was presided over by Judge John Hughes.

Locascio could have been sentenced to between 20 and 40 years in prison if convicted.

She and two other defendants, Wayne B. Rogers, 21, and Milton Muntaner, 19, both of Mundelein, were charged in the drug-related shooting death of Stephen McNulty, 21, of Vernon Hills.

and the wounding of John V. Grant of Northbrook. Rogers allegedly was the triggerman.

Prosecuting attorneys Vickie Rosetti and Matt Chancey maintained that Locascio was fully aware of the set-up leading Grant and McNulty to believe they would be meeting the others for a drug deal.

Instead, the plot was to kill the unsuspecting victims and take the $900 McNulty was supposed to bring to purchase one-half ounce of cocaine.

At the Feb. 21 trial for Muntaner, the defendant pleaded guilty for his part in the slaying in return for a 30- to 50-year prison sentence.

Rogers' trial is scheduled to begin June 2.

Carmel Walkathon Task Force Achieving Goals Set For April 25

Friday, April 25 is the date of Carmel High School's seventh annual Walkathon. Money raised from this student spring fund-raiser will be used to fund a variety of projects for Carmel for Girls and Carmel for Boys.

Over the past several weeks students have solicited pledges for their 10-mile "Walkathon" from relatives, neighbors, friends and at times each other. The students were joined by both, faculty and administration, as they "walked for Carmel."

Carmel High School for Girls plans to use its proceeds from this year's walkathon to make a payment on the newly resurfaced tennis courts, begin a fund to replace the auditorium lighting system, purchase a new special ellipsoidal spotlight for the auditorium, purchase a large mirror for the girls' gym locker room and purchase a new water cooler.

Past projects funded by the girl's school walkathon have included two new tennis courts, two upright pianos, new typewriters, a P.A. system for the school, a guidance office computer and printer, a new front curtain for the auditorium and computer room savings enabling them to open a second computer room in 1986. Since the first walkathon in 1980, Carmel for Girls has raised approximately $70,000.

Carmel High School for Boys will use its proceeds from this year's walkathon to make a payment on the 36 IBM computers located in one of its two computer rooms. Carmel for Boys has used its walkathon proceeds in the past to install fencing around the athletic fields, purchase two 15-passenger vans, rebuild the weight room, purchase the first classroom of computers, renovate the football stadium and purchase new equipment for the science laboratories.

Over the past six years, Carmel for Boys has raised a total of $116,650 through its Walkathon.

Lake County State's Attorney Fred Foreman's task force on child sexual abuse met to discuss the progress of the task force and made recommendations for future methods of dealing with child sexual abuse.

The task force was formed in May, 1984, by the state's attorney with the assistance of Ginny Fagen from the Lake County Health Dept., Diane Breske of the Dept. of Children and Family Services, Ron Hume of the Community Youth Network, Tracy Raasch of the Waukegan Police Dept. and Laura Notson, Ruth Rosengarden and Christine Bellios of the Lake County State's Attorney's Office, Victim Assistance Division.

"We are proud of the work of this task force. I would like to personally thank all the individuals who participated in the task force for their long hours of work and dedication. Without their help we would not have achieved the success we have in dealing with the delicate issue of child sexual abuse."

Over the past two years, the task force has met on a regular basis and accomplished many of its goals. These accomplishments include the training of professionals during the period of time from May, 1985 to Dec., 1985. This training included five seminars which were conducted by the College of Lake County with the assistance of Linda Weatherbe. The successful seminars trained several hundred people to recognize and deal with child sexual abuse in their professions.

Another accomplishment of the task force was to establish the child sexual abuse protection team, which is a multi-disciplinary team which screens complaints of child sexual abuse to determine their validity, and makes recommendations as to how the charges should be prosecuted and handled within the court system. This team also makes recommendations on referrals to treatment providers to deal with the families involved in either physical or sexual abuse.

The task force also published a resource directory to assist victims in obtaining necessary services. Recently, Laura Notson of the state's attorney's office and Tracy Raasch of the Waukegan Police Dept. have been visiting area pre-schools at the request of the pre-schools to demonstrate to the children the difference between innocent touching and sexual abuse.

Foreman noted future goals and needs to address child sexual abuse. These goals include the establishment of a community action board to carry on the spirit and intent of the task force.

Also, efforts should be made to coordinate services for all victims of sexual assault.

Perhaps the most im-

Sixty-two, or 44 percent, showed abuse indicated. A important goal cited by the task force will be the establishment of a resource center which will allow the children to be interviewed by staff from the child sexual abuse protection team and state's attorney's office.

Pet Of The Week

Danielle Weber's pet, Skeeter, likes posing for photos. The two year old, Chihuahua and toy terrier mix, also likes to sit by the living room window when the sun is shining. Sharon, Danielle's mom, said that when someone's at the door, Skeeter senses their identity — when it's a family member, she whines, but when it's a stranger, she barks fiercely. Family members sometimes entice Skeeter to sing. It's really kind of a howl, oh well, what's the difference. Danielle, 10, attends Salem School. If you'd like your pet to be famous like Skeeter, notify the editor of this newspaper and we'll do our best to get a photo and story in an upcoming edition. —Photo by Cindy Kujak.

Communities Recall 1965 Horror Every April

by JAMES N. MANTZOROS

People think of the month of April as the beginning of spring, the time to take out and examine the garden books. But area residents who have lived here for more than 20 years, remember April as the anniversary of two tornadoes, and the beginning of the tornado season in the Midwest.

It was on Palm Sunday, April 11, 1965, at about 3:30 p.m., when "the giant breeze" roared into Island Lake after turning Crystal Lake into a disaster area minutes before.

Six persons were killed in the Crystal/Island Lake Twister—one in Island Lake and five in Crystal Lake. Twenty-four persons were hospitalized and 139 injured.

Over 200 homes were leveled in Crystal Lake and another 300, damaged. In Island Lake, 35 homes were completely destroyed and about 75 were damaged.

Edward Dowd, McHenry County Sheriff at the time, estimated damage to the two communities at $4 million. He then asked Gov. Otto Kerner to declare the county a disaster area.

Two years later, on Friday, April 21, 1967, another twister ripped through the southwest portion of Lake County and destroyed 50 homes, damaging over 200 at the Manor Subdivision, Rte. 12 and Miller Rd., in Lake Zurich.

In addition to destroying homes in Island Lake, the tornado severely damaged the Island Lake Village Hall, which was immediately declared unsafe. For a time the village board met at Amrich's Auto Service Station on Rte. 176.

Three days later Gov. Kerner visited Island Lake and was taken on inspection tours by Mayor Alfred Grafer of Island Lake, and Mayor Melvin Stone of Wauconda. Grafer and Stone later issued a proclamation calling upon all public agencies and the citizens of both Wauconda and Island Lake, to give the Red Cross "their full support and cooperation," because it is recognized as the relief agency, and has demonstrated its ability to meet the needs of victims of disaster. At the same time the mayors asked "that all citizens, and private and public organizations desiring to make contributions for the relief of disaster victims, send their contributions to the Island Lake Disaster Fund at the Wauconda National Bank.

The "great breeze" moved swiftly, coming from the southwest, first meeting the town at the village hall on Rte. 176. The tornado cut a narrow path across the highway towards Beeber's Store, then followed a path across lake shore properties on the west and north sides of the lake.

One resident said: "You saw with your own eyes what a terrible twister can do to the biggest trees and the largest homes as well as the smaller ones. You saw destruction as only Mother Nature can do—it's horrible. Debris was everywhere."

The storm finally took a dead aim across the fields toward the home and farm of Lyle Mathews on Darell Rd. where it destroyed a barn and a newly constructed home. The final touch was next to Victor Ford Auto Sales on the Northern Edge of Wauconda, on Rte. 12.

Island Lake Mayor Charles Amrich said this week that only two homes were not rebuilt. One belonged to Robert Pokorny, whose son died from injuries suffered when their home was demolished. A month later, Pokorny, who was a village trustee at the time, submitted his resignation and the board accepted it "with reluctance." Pokorny, in his letter of resignation, stated that he would not come back to Island Lake. He moved, instead, to the Larkdale Subdivision in Wauconda.

While no grim reminders of the storm remain, darker than usual clouds accompanied by strong winds, continue to send senior citizens to the phones, calling police and fire departments.

The mayor emphasized that people who have gone through the experience of such a terrible storm, never forget.

Gov. Dedicates Wetlands

Gov. James R. Thompson was among several state and local dignitaries at the dedication ceremonies of the Des Plaines River Wetlands demonstration project in Wadsworth April 17.

The project is a joint effort between non-for-profit Wetlands Research, Inc. and the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist.

The aim of the project is to examine if flood and pollution control can occur naturally by restoring of the wetlands environment along a 450-acre site 2.8 miles long of the Des Plaines River.

"At one time, much of Illinois was wetlands area. We had natural pollution control. This first-of-its kind demonstration project is expected to produce long-term changes in water quality, flood control and enhancing wildlife habitat.

Attending the ceremony included state representative Robert Churchill (R-62); Gaylord Donnelley, chairman of the Society for the Illinois Scientific Surveys; Lake County board member Robert Neal and Wadsworth Mayor Edward Tomkowiak.

New Adelines

Sweet Adelines Get Ready For Contest

The Chain O'Lakes Chapter, Sweet Adelines, Inc., is in the final weeks of preparation for their annual regional competition to be held at DeVos Auditorium in Grand Rapids, Mich. on May 3. The chorus will approach the DeVos stage with two great songs, "April Fool" and "Changes Made" — nine new gals who have never before competed, and a dynamic director, Jim Arns, who will hopefully lead them on to surpass the third place position they now hold.

The gals are caught up in the hustle, bustle and excitement of costume planning, rehearsals, coach sessions with Jay Giallonardo, choreography, etc., and are patiently waiting for the moment of their first stage presence.

"The curtain opens, the director turns, you're in chorus position, the pitch is blown, 'I was a fool, you were laughing all the time,' — the songs are finished, you hear the applause, you're feeling like a star, the choruses have all competed, you wait with anticipation for the results to be announced, the excitement grows, you hold your breath and listen in deep intent for the winner's names to be called," said Julie Hazel, as she gives Sylvia Lobo, of Woodstock, some insight on the thrill of competing.

The anticipation is building for the newcomers as they hear stories about last year's competition, when the chorus came home with a third place medal. Not only will they share in the excitement of performing, but they will have the thrill of rooting for their own "McHenry County Chord Company" quartet, who will compete on May 2, and for "The Rolling Tones," who, like themselves, will be competing for the first time. Good luck!

I really enjoy being a Sweet Adeline and am looking forward to the competition. Joining Sweet Adelines is the best thing I've done for myself in a long time," said Natalie Fieger of Wauconda.

Sweet Adelines is not new to Kim Kaufman of Woodstock, nor to Cory Catencamp.

camp of Crystal Lake. Kaufman's mother, Dotty, also of Woodstock, has been a Sweet Adeline for 20 years, and Cory's mother, Pat, also from Crystal Lake, and sister, Caryn, of McHenry, are all Sweet Adelines.

"Sweet Adelines are very open and friendly and it's great to see everyone enjoy themselves. I'm looking forward to the competition and to meeting Sweet Adelines from other choruses. It sounds like it will be a lot of fun," said Diana Yerly of Crystal Lake.

The results of the regional competition will determine which chorus will compete in the international competition to be held in Hawaii in the fall of '87.

The Chain O'Lakes Chorus meets every Thursday night, at 8 p.m. at Mundelein High School. Women 16 and over are welcome. For more information, call: Julie (312) 356-7526, Ruth, (312) 362-0886, or Dotty, (815) 338-2475.

Appearing during Lake County Community Concert Assn's 34th season on Oct. 25, will be Slovak State Folk Ensemble, a sensational company of 60 dancers, singers and orchestra in the debut tour of America. Beautiful Czechoslovakia will be portrayed through their exquisite costumes, dances, songs and music.

On Nov. 22: Dukes of Dixieland, hailed as among the world's foremost exponents of New Orleans jazz, will feature such favorites as "Bourbon St. Parade," "Basin St. Blues," Scott Joplin's "The Entertainer" and Star Wars' "Cantina Suite;" Dickens' classic holiday tale for the entire family.

"A Christmas Carol," will be performed by life-size marionettes of the Broadway Marionettes. They will sing and dance their way into everyone's hearts on Dec. 6.

On Feb. 28, returning by popular demand will be Toc-catas and Flourishes, a trumpet and organ duo who for more than a decade have reigned as one of the most popular duos currently performing.

'Riders' Coming To Woodstock

Nashville's favorite singing cowboys, "Riders In The Sky," will be presented in concert on Saturday, May 10, at the Woodstock Opera House. "Riders In The Sky" is like no other band in the world.

First, they are a cowboy band, a western singing trio. The members play acoustic instruments, dress like Tex Ritter did, and sing harmonies like their heroes, the Sons of the Pioneers.

Unlike that classic group, however, the Riders also have a slightly out-of-kilter sense of humor. They manage to pay tribute to the music they love so dearly and the setting from whence it sprang, namely the B-Western movies of the '30's and '40's, while at the same time giving a knowing wink as they poke fun at the whole notion of endless skies, campfire camaraderie, and good guys who always win.

Reserved seating is available for the 8:15 performance for $10 and $12. The opera house is located at 121 Van Buren St. in Woodstock. Phone (815) 338-5300.

Waukegan Chorus Plans Concert

It's time for the Waukegan Symphony Chorus annual spring concert.

The concert program is a joyful reflection of the close-to-the-earth feelings appropriate to this time of the year.

The opening numbers, a group of spirituals, are a salute to the irrepressible spirit of the American negro. Brought to this country as slaves in the late 18th and early 19th centuries, they embraced the strange culture and religion into which they had been thrust.

In so doing, they added a richness and character to the American experience which endures today.

"Frostiana," Randall Thompson's setting of seven poems of Robert Frost, melds the artistic efforts of two American artists.

Using some of Frost's best-loved poetry, as well as some which is less familiar, Thompson wove his American flavored music around these verses in a way designed to highlight Frost's unique view of the world.

Ralph Vaughan Williams's lyrical setting of Shakespeare's words from "Merchant of Venice" brings the first half of the program to a gentle close. The pastoral setting is evocative of warm summer nights of soft moonlight, gentle breezes and is, finally, a Serenade to Music.

A group of renaissance madrigals and ballets follows the intermission.

Madrigals are usually set as love songs, or with text and melody of a pastoral nature. Ballets often consist of nonsense syllables, and are usually set to more lively tunes.

The final, and major work on the program is the "Te Deum" of Anton Bruckner. One of the last sacred works of the most important church composer of the late 19th century, it is a setting of a much earlier text.

Make plans to celebrate the joyful coming of spring with friends and family. Enjoy the Songs for Spring concert of the Waukegan Symphony Chorus under the direction of Dr. Don Horisberger, May 3, at 8 p.m. in the historic Genesee Theatre. For ticket information, call the Jack Benny Center for the Arts, (312) 244-1660.

Communication Key To Reducing Teen Suicide

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY

While the use of alcohol and drugs among teenagers has long held the media spotlight, another issue is gaining increasing attention from parents, educators and other individuals who work closely with today's youth - teen suicide.

Suicide of a friend or relative of any age can leave one with a devastating loss and feeling of helplessness. The trauma, though, that is suffered by the parents of a teenager who has committed suicide can leave a somewhat different impact.

Should they have been more alert to changes in their child's behavior? Did they fail to recognize that perhaps their child was putting out signals for help? Just how much responsibility should parents, and society, shoulder in providing for today's youth?

In one regard, parents and society are, in part, responsible for helping their children to cope with stress of the adult, says Leah Pendarvis, director of Family Counseling in Grayslake.

"It is our responsibility," Pendarvis said. "If a child commits suicide, it means we have not done what we should be doing."

Everyone faces a certain amount of stress as part of their daily lives, so why is it that some are less able to cope with the problems at hand.

Providing the "tools" to help teenagers learn how to cope, as well as being able to identify youngsters who may be more vulnerable is something that many experts point to as the key to providing help.

"If a kid doesn't have the tools to deal with stress, they can get depressed," says Scott Bermingham, program director at Greenhouse Youth Services in Mundelein. "If someone doesn't have a way to communicate their problems, how are they to know how to deal with the pressure?"

According to Bermingham, environmental factors strongly play a part in the build up of pressure on a teenager. "Peer pressure, parent pressure, overall performance - if you put all of those together, it can be a lot of pressure," he said.

A breakdown in communication between the parents and child is really the fault of neither side. "It doesn't mean the parents aren't trying to understand their child," he said. Instead, the youth could be internalizing his feelings and not know how to open up to others.

"A teenager has to be able to get angry. Maybe someone who was on the football team suddenly stops playing. When we are achieving, we feel like we are going someplace," he said.

"It's when everything stops moving that the teenager feels hopeless and can't see a way out," Bermingham said.

Other external influences that might lead a teenager to thoughts of suicide include a divorce, or loss of someone he or she felt close to, according to Debbie Izzo, psychologist at Antioch High School.

The disintegration of family life, when the child feels like they have no support, seems to be the chief reason, she said.

Like Bermingham and Pendarvis, she maintains that awareness on the part of the parents is essential for the teenager. Clues to look for range from an abrupt change in behavior, withdrawal, grade or school attendance changes.

Those changes could, however, also be attributed to other factors such as a parents' divorce, or that the student has recently taken up drugs, or anything, cautions Round Lake Senior High School Principal Jim Prault.

There have been a few suicide attempts at the high school this year. Experts see the "unsuccessful" suicide attempt as a call for help. In many cases, parents recall their child talked about suicide in moments of despair, says Lindenhurst Police Chief Gary Kupsak, who has seen several "half-hearted" attempts that are an obvious call for help.

Pendarvis stresses that over-reacting to changes in a teenagers behavior is better than no reaction at all. "Most people who commit suicide put out direct signals. You have to react (to the signals) as if its true," she said. "Preventative action is something there needs to be more of in the mental health field.

"By the time someone reaches me, there have already been some of those gestures. I pick up on that and try to interpret it."

"I have not found that the family wants to deny the problem. They feel helpless, but they don't resist help," she said.

Most important in recognizing and helping someone with a problem is to open the channels of communication. "People are often too quick not to listen, or to dismiss someone's feelings as temporary," said Donna Kwiatek of Connection, the Lake County Mental Health Center's 24-hour hotline.

"People don't like to talk about suicide, but they need to be made to feel it's okay. We can't eliminate the way they're feeling, but maybe they need someone to just listen."

"Be your friend's friend," she said.

The phone number for Connection is (312) 367-1080. Contributing to this story were Gloria Davis, Charles Johnston, Mike Pramshafer and Steve Peterson.

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: April 23, 1936

Antioch Fire Chief James Stearns hosted a meeting of over 300 firemen from throughout the county in the Antioch Theatre.

Dr. Elijah James, an expert on Europe, addressed the Antioch Men's Club on the subject of unrest in Europe. James predicted that there would be war in Europe but that no foreign country would attempt to invade the U.S. James was uncertain as to whether the U.S. would get involved in another foreign war.

The Antioch News editorialized on the danger of excessive government regulation of private industry. The News criticized President Roosevelt for failing, after four years in office, to significantly reduce unemployment.

Joseph Sterbenz held a perfect pinochle hand, 1500 points in a diamond suite, at a card party held at Haling's Resort.

The A & P Food Store offered 3-lb. bags of coffee for 45 cents.

THIRTY YEARS AGO: April 26, 1956

Fred Scott and Louis Biel were unanimously re-elected president and secretary, respectively, of the Antioch Twp. High School Board.

The new Jewel store paid to have Lake St. widened in front of its building.

The editorial page of the Antioch News was still deeply concerned about excessive government regulation of private industry. It warned that if the government could regulate gas producers, it would not be long before the corner grocer was being regulated.

Big gas hogs were the toast of the time as ads for Chryslers, Pontiacs, and Oldsmobiles argued over who had the longest, biggest, most powerful car for sale.

TEN YEARS AGO: April 21, 1976

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club brought an actor in full costume as Johnny Appleseed to plant trees in Antioch in honor of the Bicentennial.

Fifty-year-old George Atkinson of Antioch was killed by a hit and run driver on Rte. 83 north of Grass Lake Rd.

The village board voted to fence in Doc Jensen Park at Sequoit Terrace.

Kay DeRousse of Antioch saved the life of a choking eighth-grade girl by applying the Heimlich Maneuver. The incident happened during a class that DeRousse was teaching at Newport School.

Dave Bushing ran a personal ad taunting Jim Means. Bushing and Means were scheduled to have a shooting match against each other on May 2.

The editorial page of the Antioch News was not concerned with excessive government regulation of private industry. Instead, it pointed with alarm to the massive military buildup of the Soviet Union.

The Antioch High School baseball team continued to share the lead of the Northwest Suburban Conference with Grant, Grayslake, and Lake Zurich. The Sequoits held a 4-2 record going into the third week of play.

The Governor Speaks

Governor Jim Thompson appeared in Lake County on April 17 to announce his commitment of $1.2 million in funding to rehabilitate the Chain O' Lakes. Thompson brought the crowd at the American Legion in Fox Lake to their feet when he told about spending weekends as a boy fishing on little Grassy Lake. See related story on Page 3A.

St. Peter's Holds Election

Election of school board members for St. Peter's Church will take place after all the Masses on Sunday, April 27 and after the 5:30 p.m. Mass on April 26, in Father Frawley Hall. Polls will close at 1:30 p.m. on April 27.

Five candidates are seeking the three open positions. They are:

Wayne Sobczak has been an Antioch resident since 1954. He resides in Oakwood Knolls with his wife, Kathy, and their two children. An Antioch High School graduate, Sobczak has also attended the University of Wisconsin, Kenosha extension, the College of Lake County and classes at St. Therese and Victory Memorial Hospitals.

Sobczak has had 14 years experience in the trucking industry serving in management. For the past four years he has been associated with a local real estate agency as a broker.

He has been a member and an officer of the Antioch Rescue Squad for the past 13 years, and is currently serving his second term as 1st Lt. of Antioch Rescue. He holds membership in the National Assoc. of Emergency Medical Technicians, the Chicago Heart Assoc., C.P.R. Subcommittee. He has Illinois and national certification as an emergency medical technician and paramedic, as well as being an American Heart Assoc. certified CPR instructor and is also certified in advanced cardiac life support. He is a former assistant instructor of paramedics at Victory Memorial Hospital.

Sobczak stated, "I am pleased with the current operation of St. Peter School, and have been very pleased with the incumbent school board. I am seeking this position because three incumbent members have chosen not to seek re-election. I feel that I may be able to share the experience and resources I have available to me, to help keep St. Peter School operating at peak efficiency, while giving our students the best education available today."

Claude (Mike) Smith, his wife, Ann, and their three children have been Antioch residents for the past 10 years. Smith graduated from Maine Twp. High School West and the U.S. Military Academy at West Point.

He is the president of a local manufacturing corporation and secretary-treasurer of another local firm.

He is a member and vice president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and a board member and president of the Oakwood Knolls Property Owners Assoc.

Smith commented, "I have enjoyed working on various school activities such as Footlights and Summerfest. I would like to become more deeply involved in the operation of the school. St. Peter School has a fine tradition of high scholastic and spiritual standards. I believe that my job experience and civic involvement would enable me to help maintain these high standards."

Jim Haley has lived all of his life in Antioch. He resides in town with his wife, Jamie, and their four children. He is a graduate of St. Peter School and Antioch High School.

He is a member of the Exchange Club of Antioch, the Knights of Columbus, the St. Peter Footlights Committee and the Antioch Rescue Squad. Haley served as a commentator at the 5:30 p.m. Mass for 15 years.

Haley said, "As a member of the school board, I would work to maintain and accelerate the high standards of quality education established by the present administration and board."

Joe Badame, his wife, Carol, and their daughter reside in Antioch. Badame has been a parish member for 30 years. He graduated from St. Peter School and Antioch High School, having also attended Carmel High School for two years.

Badame is a past board member of the Lake County Area Vocational College. He served three years in the Food Service Division. He is presently an Illinois State Certified Paramedic and secretary of the Antioch Rescue Squad. He has been active in Antioch Chamber of Commerce activities and St. Peter Summerfest. For the past 14 years he and his wife have operated a food service business in Antioch.

Badame stated, "My interest in St. Peter School and Parish is based on the belief in a good overall education, coupled with strong Christian values. In the ever changing, complex world of today, our children need a sound education, grounded in religious values, to meet the challenges of higher education, future careers and parenthood.

"I would welcome the opportunity to continue the efforts of the administration and faculty, parishioners and board members. I believe that it is necessary to maintain St. Peter School as a viable alternative to public education," Badame concluded.

Carolyn (Carrie) Higgins resides in Antioch and has been a member of St. Peter Parish for 10 years. Higgins graduated from Alverno College, Milwaukee, with a B.A. in secondary education. She received an M.S. Ed. in Learning Disabilities from the University of Wisconsin at Whitewater. She has been employed for the past 18 years by a nearby elementary school where she is presently the assistant principal and learning disabilities specialist.

Higgins feels "that the standards for quality education must be maintained, and by working cooperatively with the school board, administration and faculty, this goal can be met."

Village Board Meets

Mayor Toft and the board were perturbed that the Soo Line had sent a contract charging $60 annually for the right-of-way the village uses for a water line across Soo Line property. Though the board voted to pay it, Mayor Toft muttered that maybe the village should find a lot that they can bill the Soo Line for cleaning up.

Award Perry Hellum

At the April 16 meeting of the Racine-Kenosha Reading Council at Bullen Jr. High School in Kenosha, four Celebrate Literacy Awards were given. This award is given to recipients who have made contributions toward promoting literacy.

Three of the recipients were Kenosha County people. Virginia Hawkins, a classroom teacher at McKinley Elementary School with the Kenosha Unified System and a former consultant received the impressive framed certificate that was signed by the International Reading Assn. president and the local Racine-Kenosha Reading Council president.

The second one went to Dr. Perry Hellum, administrator at Riverview School in Silver Lake. Among his accomplishments related to promoting literacy are support for the young Authors Writing Project the past four years, encouraging Sustained Silent Reading the past 10 years, and the encouragement given to staff members by recognizing them for that "extra mile" and awarding a Golden Apple Award. Most of all, his philosophy which encourages staff members and students alike to do their best was a contributing factor.

A Racine couple received the literacy award for all of their work with PTA and parents and students in so many ways. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have 12 children of their own.

Lucy Beck, a retired children's librarian for the Kenosha Public Library was the fourth literacy award recipient for the local reading council. Her name was submitted to the state and it was announced at the meeting that she has won the state award and is a nominee for the national award.

Gene Calligore, a reading specialist at McKinley Jr. High School and chairman of the Council's Celebrate Literacy group made the presentations.

New Officers

Assessors Assn. Elects 1986-87 New Officers

The Lake-McHenry Counties Assessors Assn. has elected new officer for 1986-87.

Elected were the following: president, Betty Niemi, Grant Twp. assessor; vice president, Ted Pitzen, McHenry Twp. assessor; secretary, Sue Hironimus, Benton Twp. assessor; treasurer, Maurice DeWulf, Shields Twp. assessor and directors, Herbert W. Hanf, Jr., Zion Twp. assessor and immediate past president and Gerald Kristan, Avon Twp. assessor.

Lake-McHenry Counties Assessors Assn. is an organization of assessors and deputies from all 18 townships in Lake County and four of the bordering townships in McHenry County.

The organization works for the continual improvement of the Property Tax System through real estate appraisal training for assessors and deputies, exchange of ideas and concepts of mass appraisal techniques, and cooperation with the supervisor of assessments throughout the county.

In addition, the organization promotes legislation through the Illinois Assessors Assn. to improve the quality of assessments and the betterment of the overall Property Tax System.

Council To Supply Jobs

Four hundred high schoolers will be placed in summer jobs by the Private Industry Council of Lake County, according to Chris Stevens, director of the county-wide program.

Federal and state funding has opened up summer jobs for 400 teens. The Private Industry Council will also provide training in job-readiness skills and career awareness for an additional 100 youngsters ages 14 and 15. The programs for 14 and 15 year olds is at capacity.

Students 16 to 21 years of age who meet the income guidelines will be given jobs in not-for-profit organizations or governmental agencies where they will be paid minimum wages for up to 40 hours per-week.

Youth Program Manager, Miriam Zeno, stresses that to have a son or daughter enrolled a family must meet certain income criteria. Also, a Social Security number is necessary.

Zeno urges the young people to apply now. "It takes time to prepare the paper work and to arrange with the worksites. We want the students to start work as soon as school is out," she says. "It may be too late to apply if they wait until school closes."

Wallace Henley, of the youth program staff, is arranging appointments for student applicants. He may be reached at (312)249-2200. Further information is also available at all Lake County high school guidance offices.

Rewriting School Lines

Changing school boundaries is never easy and, as we indicated here several weeks ago, should be undertaken only for the most compelling reasons.

An effort to join a new subdivision on the Lake-McHenry county line to the Wauconda Unit School District now is going through the appeal process. Appeal always is an integral part of any boundary rewriting project. The detachment of Fox River Shores Subdivision is an example of a school boundary change proposition with merit.

The subdivision is located adjacent to the Wauconda community. All the new residents look to Wauconda for services. They are socially and economically tied to Wauconda. The subdivision, technically in the McHenry School district, is separated from school buildings by a natural barrier, the Fox River. Children are forced to take a long bus ride to get to school. The detachment of Fox River Shores to Wauconda is a classic example, in our minds, of a boundary change that is reasonable and just. It wasn't surprising that the McHenry County Board of School Trustees opposed the effort of Fox River Shores parents to detach to Wauconda.

McHenry Circuit Judge Michael J. Sullivan is to be praised for overruling the school trustees. Good sense dictates that Judge Sullivan's ruling will stand.

The Lake County Board of School Trustees, as we noted, are dealing with three detachment propositions. One of them, the detachment of a rural area near Millburn from Warren High School with annexation to Antioch, has been stalled over a technicality regarding petition signatures. The Millburn action also has the appearance of a classic case because there are strong arguments on both sides. We haven't changed our view of detachment actions originating in Arbor Vista Subdivision, between Grayslake and Mundelein, and Lincolnshire which are based on snobbery and nothing more.

Financially, every inch of ground is important to the real estate tax base of every school district. That's why opposition to a detachment proposition always is opposed by the target district. It is fortunate, however, that there is legal machinery to change school boundaries to correct injustices and inequities. But changing boundaries never is easy.

Stop, Go Society

There is nothing like a new stop and go traffic signal to drive home the fact that your life and your community are changing.

It is shocking, to say the least, that no less than seven new electronic signals are scheduled for installation in this locality. Stop and go lights mean one thing—rapid urbanization. Anyone who travels local highways knows that traffic volume is increasing. The installation of more traffic lights is evidence that the volume of traffic has reached an urban level.

Tiny Hainesville, Lake County's oldest and smallest municipality, will be the recipient of one of the new signals. Frankly, that's surprising. It is also more than a little disconcerting to note that one of the installations will be on Rte. 173 east of Antioch in a sector considered rural, open country. Now it will be stop before you can go at these spots and others like them.

A stoplight is blinking testimony that our countryside has become or is becoming something different. Life undoubtedly will be safer with more of the traffic contraptions, but it won't necessarily be freer. That is sad.

Letters To The Editor

Volunteers Thanked

Editor:

For over 15 years, thousands of Lake County people have been volunteering their time, gas, and energies as drivers, riders, coordinators, assistant coordinators, heaters, record keepers and team leaders in the Meals-With-Wheels Program. April 1 Interfaith Community Services transferred sponsorship of the meals program to Catholic Charities, and those of us on the Interfaith staff, are having to say goodbye to some good friends.

Many of our volunteers come back seasonally—between jobs, during the summer, when they retire, after the babies start school and on and on. We want to say goodbye to so many dedicated good people, but even more, we want to say thank you to so many who gave loving smiles, a cheery hello and caring hugs to the meal's clients for so many years.

Meals volunteers come in all shapes, sizes, ages and backgrounds—from little toddler-size people who "carry the milk," to busy business men and women who share their rushed lunch hour with our frail meal's clients, to young 80ish retired seniors who dropped anything, anytime, to deliver a hot meal when we had emergencies. Whenever two meal's volunteers come together, they never fail to swap stories that are generated by love of their fellow man.

Volunteers are special people and meal's volunteers are God's special people. So to all of you who ever delivered, heated and cared, we at Interfaith, say thanks!!

Jan Wacholz, for the board and staff of Interfaith Community Services, Waukegan

Disappointed Vet

Editor:

I am afraid you are reading a letter from a distressed old man who is living in a fantasy land of his own. I have been proud of my country ever since I can remember, and still am. Because of my health I had to retire a year and a half early, due to a bad heart. After being in World War II, I moved out here and the first thing I did was build a flag pole for our country's flag.

During the last two years my flag has been cut down and stolen a few times. Because of my health, I cannot keep replacing the rope clips and flag, so I am not putting it up anymore. I think it is a shame that a senior citizen cannot live his few remaining years the way he wants. I try to keep to myself so no one will think of me as a pest.

The ones responsible for the thefts should be proud of the flag. Maybe I overdo it a little, but I feel if I fought for it that it is partly mine. If the vandal(s) who did it has any responsibilities at all, they would know how I feel.

A Disappointed Senior Citizen
 (Name withheld by request)

Editor's Viewpoint

'Wall Of Fame' Search Seeking Early Mayors

by BILL SCHROEDER

RUGGED SEARCH—Grayslake Mayor Edwin Schroeder has launched a search that amounts to finding a needle in a haystack—or six needles to be exact. That is the number of photographs of former mayors still to be located for a display in the village hall. The search is going back to 1895 for George Thomson, who served a four-year term. Other photographs needed include Fred Battershall, 1899-1917; Dr. Shaffer, 1917-1921; S.L. Carfield, 1921-1925; Guy Thomas, 1925-1929; and Edward C. Hook, 1941-1949. Village officials will be indebted to any relatives who can produce photographs of these former mayors.

PLANNING CELEBRATION—Friends will be happy to know that Shirley and Chet Cozy are making plans for the observance this fall of their 50th wedding anniversary. Thirty years ago the Cozys were Lakeland's best known citizens, serving as proprietors of Chet Cozy's, a popular key club located at Rtes. 83 and 120, before key clubs became popular.

Cozy's was an "in" place for Lake County's insiders and a legion of friends. For well served beverages, tasty sandwiches, witty conversation and an unusual air of relaxed friendship, Cozy's probably was the best bar that ever existed in this locality. You know it wasn't an average bar when the host would take down a violin off the shelf and serenade his customers.

Chet is devoting himself these days to his work as a deacon of St. Gilbert Church where he is deeply involved in hospital ministry.

NOT SURPRISED—Aides in the office of Congressman Phil Crane are surprised that Democrats expressed surprise about LaRouche candidates running in the Democratic primary.

"We knew all along that one of the Democrats running for a Congressional nomination was a LaRouche backer," a Crane staffer told this column. In the 12th District, where Crane is the incumbent, the Democratic nominee is John A. Leonardi of Fox River Grove, a union leader. Leonardi defeated Joseph M. Baruch, a LaRouche entry.

NO REGRETS—Kenneth "Ken" Potter savors his experience in public life, but he has no intention of going back into politics. As the former mayor of Wauconda, he enjoys wintering in Florida and bass fishing in Lake Okeechobee, and summers in Wauconda where he and his wife operate a Dog N' Suds.

Potter presided over Wauconda during tranquil times. He smiled in observing, "I see where a couple of my colleagues are still at it, Bob Sabonjian (Mayor Robert Sabonjian of Waukegan) and Carl Schrimpf (Mayor Carl Schrimpf of Round Lake Beach)."

Typical of leaders in small communities, Potter "had the call" to public service. He got elected, gave the job his best and then turned over the leadership role to someone else. He has no regrets. That's probably the way it should be.

SHOWING RESPECT—Family members, friends and neighbors of Geneva Neumann paid their last respects to her by attending a party in her home. That's the way she wanted to be remembered. And those that knew and loved her understood.

"Mom said she didn't want a funeral and she didn't want any mourning. She asked us to invite everyone over and have a good time—just as if she were with us. That's what she wanted," her daughter, Paula, exclaimed.

So there was food, beverages and lots of visiting as friends and neighbors stopped in for a short stay at an open house to honor the memory of a lady everyone admired and respected. Gen battled kidney failure with the help of modern technology for five years, but a tumor was too much.

Gen always insisted that there is too much to be gotten out of life to get down about misfortune. She had a gift for getting people to put unhappiness behind and live for the future. Gathering in a convivial setting was a perfect way to pay tribute to a grand lady.

The Upper Fox River Develops A New Look

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

For many families, a Sunday afternoon drive in the country is the perfect way to relax and get away from the pressures of daily life. Veteran wanderers know that the byways in the upper Fox River area offer some of the most beautiful scenery in northern Illinois.

The villages of Johnsburg, Richmond, Spring Grove, and Sunnyside are the towns that constitute the upper Fox River area. For most of their history, these villages have been noted for an abundance of rolling farmland, meandering streams, and quaint antique shops.

Things are changing, though. Sight-seers find scenic vistas interrupted more and more frequently by industrial plants and housing developments these days.

Like so many communities in neighboring Lake County, the villages of the upper Fox River have jumped on the bandwagon for economic development.

Traveling north of Fox Lake on Rte. 12, one finds oneself in an idyllic pastoral setting. The road is bordered on both sides by woodland groves. Occasionally, one will pass a stream or a little farm. Then, coming around a bend into the little village of Spring Grove, upsprings a virtual manufacturer's row.

Companies like Intermatic, Forms Corporation of America, General Fire Extinguisher Corp., and Acu-Pac have found a home in Spring Grove. Lured by relatively low tax rates, plentiful water, and a high quality of life, these corporations offer Spring Grove residents employment opportunities close to home. They also help to broaden the tax base of the community and, thus, help to keep residential real estate taxes at a reasonable level.

Spring Grove has been the most aggressive and successful of the villages of the upper Fox River in bringing development into the area. The village has not only encouraged industrial growth; it is also vigorously bringing in new housing developments.

One of the more ambitious housing projects in Spring Grove is Springdale Trails, developed by Cambridge Homes, Inc., of Mundelein. Springdale Trails promises to be a neighborhood of 100 luxury homes, each occupying one-acre homesites. Each house is bordered by its own equestrian trail. None of these homes comes cheaply, though. Prices start at $95,000 and run upwards of $130,000.

Other villages in the area are playing catch-up with Spring Grove. Neighboring Richmond has applied for an $850,000 grant under the Build Illinois program to extend water and sewer lines.

"The first thing that developers look for is adequate sewer and water," said Richmond Village Clerk Kate Hellman. "By getting the infrastructure in place, we expect to be in a position to bring development in."

As the villages west of Spring Grove get infrastructure that is adequate to handle major new developments, they will face the question that has divided officials in neighboring Lake County for over a decade: namely, how much development can be accepted without substantially changing the nature of the community?

Officials speak of controlling growth by carefully examining proposed developments and restricting the areas in which industrial projects can be built.

No one, including developers, seems to want to change what originally attracted them to the area. Developers of Springdale Trails emphasize the countryside environment and proximity to boating, camping, and skiing facilities in their sales pitch to prospective buyers.

Officials of Richmond are particularly sensitive to the need to preserve the unique quality of their downtown area. In fact, they have applied to have the downtown area designated as a national historic district.

It is certain, though, that industrial and residential developers will be knocking on the doors of village halls throughout the area for years to come.

Officials of the villages of the upper Fox River will have the thorny task of trying to balance conflicting needs over the next decade. On the one hand, economic growth is critical to the vitality of any community. On the other, it is important to preserve the superior quality of life that attracted people to the area in the first place.

The upper Fox River is not just for sight-seers any more. While many consider that a blessing, the trick will be to bring in the developments without losing the tourists. But then, nothing is ever certain except for change.

The Changing Landscape

Scenic vistas and rolling farmland throughout the upper Fox River area are giving way to factories in the name of progress. The Intermatic plant on Rte 12 in Spring Grove is part of a small, but growing strip of manufacturers that is situated between heavily wooded countryside and farmers' fields.

Household Products Pose Big Problems

Everyday household products pose problems for shoppers, according to Consumers Digest. The top complaints are:

- Spray cans that won't spray. So spray right there in the store. If it works, take it home.
- Pre-wrapped foods that conceal blemishes or mold. You won't discover the bad news until you get home. But don't be shy—take the spoiled foods back.
- Leaky cartons. By the time you get to the checkout counter, any leaks should be evident. Don't sweat it—replace the carton.
- Pop-top cans that mangle fingers or nails. Let Mikie open them.
- Packages marked "cents off" that really aren't. Do your homework and take along a pocket calculator.
- Poorly designed packages that say "push here" or "tear here." This is my pet peeve. I've yet to open a small creamer without squirting. I keep a sharp knife handy.
- Flimsy cookie boxes with crushed cookies. That's the way it crumbles. You can do little other than bake your own, make sure the box is squarely shipshape and buy see-through items.
- Sticky plastic wrap. Wet your hands or get out the wax paper and rubber bands.
- Oozy, drippy meat packages. Ask the checkout person to place them in ice cream bags.
- Unrollable toilet paper. I'm still trying to figure out this one.

Coffee-Sherry Rump Roast

- 4 pound rump roast
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon Beau Monde seasoning
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup black pepper
- ½ cup cooking oil
- 1 onion, thinly sliced
- ½ cup coffee
- ½ cup dry sherry

Pilot Light
GREG MELIKOV

Trim excess fat from roast. Combine Beau Monde, salt and pepper; coat meat. In Dutch oven, brown meat on all sides in hot oil and reduce heat to low; top with onion and pour on coffee mixed with sherry. Cover tightly and cook three hours, occasionally basting and adding a little water if needed. Slice meat thin and spoon on pan juices. Serves six-eight.

Invite Readers To Get Stamp Show Tickets

Lakeland Newspapers are pleased to offer readers an opportunity to visit AMERIPEX for only $1. While a one-day pass to this international stamp show will be $2.50, Lakeland readers can purchase as many passes as they wish for less than half of the regular price.

AMERIPEX is the first international show to be held away from the East Coast. Once every 10 years, America is host to such a show. This year it will be held, from May 22 to June 1, outside of Chicago, at the Rosemont O'Hare Expo Center. Another chance to see such a show may not come for many years. The next U.S. show is scheduled for New York in 1996.

AMERIPEX is a show for collectors. More than 4,500 frames (each with 16, 8½ x 11 inch pages) of exhibits, many never seen in the U.S. before, 200 dealers selling all types of philatelic items and 130 countries will be there for the collector.

But International Stamp Shows are for everyone, not just the collector. For the non-collector, Mickey Mouse, Minnie Mouse, Donald Duck and their friends will be at AMERIPEX. There will be many types of tours available to museums and other area points of interest for family members who don't wish to attend the show. On the show floor will be exhibits sure to entice even the non-collector: the world's first letters, rare items from Queens and Princesses. There will be early airplanes that carried mail, vans that did the same and astronauts who didn't.

For the youngster who is a collector, or is still deciding, a 9,000 square foot "Ben Franklin" area has been set aside. This area will provide children an opportunity to learn about stamp collecting and have fun while learning. It is a hands-on exhibit where Postal Service Employees will be available to answer questions. All young people will be admitted to AMERIPEX free and will also receive a large "goody bag" full of stamps and other collectibles as they leave the show.

To obtain a discounted, one-day pass to AMERIPEX, send your check, payable to AMERIPEX, for $1 per ticket desired, plus a legal size self-addressed-stamped-envelope to: AMERIPEX, 5944 W. Montrose Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60634-1628.

For information on the available tours and a schedule of events, send a legal size SASE to the "Visitor Center" at the same address. Postage of 54 cents must be affixed to this envelope. A brochure will be sent to you immediately.

Lakeland Newspapers offers you this opportunity to enjoy some of the World's treasures at a special price.

Think Twice Before Adopting A Ferret

An article put out by the Maryland Dept. of Health and Mental Hygiene, 201 West Preson St., Baltimore, Md. 21202, has come to my attention. These people will be able to answer any questions you may have about ferrets.

The ferret is becoming a popular exotic urban pet. However, there are safety considerations for ferret owners. There has been a rise in the occurrence of ferret bites in infants and small children, ranging in severity from bitten ears and noses to lost fingers. Since 1981, there have been five children in Colorado, Indiana and Nevada, who have suffered extensive injuries during attacks by pet ferrets.

For those of you who are considering the purchase of a ferret, please read these safety considerations.

Pet ferrets are derived from European ferret stock which were raised in captivity for centuries and originally were selectively bred for productivity and desirable behavioral traits.

During 1984, there was a 100 percent increase in pet ferret market sales. Estimates by ferret breeders place annual sales of ferrets at 20,000 to 30,000 nationwide. The ferret market is divided into two segments—pet trade and research. Ferrets are not used in commercial fur industries.

As pets, ferrets are similar to domestic cats. Like cats, they are fastidious in their toilet habits, easily self-trained to a litter box or paper and have docile behavior. While they are more likely to bite than cats, ferrets are far less inclined to bite than a wild mustelid.

Ferrets are usually kept in cages except when being handled. They are inquisitive, and if left to roam free about a house, are apt to get into trouble. They should not be released outdoors, because if they rabies vectors and was not vaccinated with live rabies virus vaccine, then the likelihood of the ferret's having rabies seems remote. On the other hand, if the ferret has possibly been in contact with wildlife, rabies should be considered.

To be absolutely certain that a suspect ferret does not have rabies, its brain must be submitted for rabies testing. A quarantine period cannot be relied upon.

So, if you think you may be getting a ferret for a pet, think carefully and learn about the ferret and its care. Keep in mind that ferrets can be dangerous to infants and small children.

Pet-Wise

escape, it is often impossible to recover them.

Escaped ferrets rapidly develop the cunning, speed and stealth for which their wild counterparts are noted. Escaped ferrets, however, do not appear capable of reproducing and establishing themselves in the wild.

Although studies on susceptibility of ferrets to rabies have not been reported as a mustelid, the ferret is assumed to be highly susceptible to and capable of transmitting rabies. Only four cases of rabies have been reported in ferrets of European stock in the United States. No rabies vaccines are approved for use on ferrets.

While they are a potential source of rabies exposure for man, ferrets are less likely to be a source of rabies for humans than are pet skunks, raccoons, or foxes which may have been caught in the wild. If in the investigation of a ferret bite, the investigator can be assured the suspect animal has had no contact with indigenous

The conventional air conditioner has a very important part missing.

If we put a picture in the outline above and told you mechanical engineers called it a reversing valve, you'd probably yawn.

A few pounds of iron and steel containing some precision components isn't everybody's idea of excitement. But what that little reversing valve does for the air conditioner is the biggest thing to happen to it since it was invented eighty years ago.

It turns an expensive investment that's only good a few months a year into a year-round innovation in human comfort.

The electric heat pump. Don't let the name mislead you. In the summer, the valve turns it into a conventional central air conditioner. Just a flick of a switch on your wall thermostat activates it, and starts the cooling cycle. Refrigerant absorbs the heat inside your house and a compressor moves it outside. Over and over and over.

Unlike the conventional kind, however, that's only the half of it. Because unlike the conventional kind, the heat pump doesn't just sit there like a bump on a pickle when summer's over.

Come fall, another flick and that little valve shifts it into reverse. And til it's T-shirt weather again, heat from the sun that's always in the air outside is pulled inside to keep you toasty. For less bread than you'd expect.

That's because the heat pump happens to be one of the most efficient heating devices in the world. So much so that it actually gives you more heating BTU's than you pay for. At least seventy-five percent more, and that's a fact.

No other air conditioner can make that promise.

For a few more facts about this marvelous machine, just write to: Heat Pump, Box 767, Chicago, Illinois 60690.

How To Get Mortgage Approved—Quickly!

It is no secret that mortgage interest rates are at their lowest levels since the late 1970's. It is so well-known, in fact, that borrowers with high rate mortgages are emerging like lemmings returning from the sea, seeking new life by refinancing with a lower interest rate.

So many tens of thousands have submitted applications across the country that mortgage processing times at many lenders have climbed to 60 days or longer.

Buyers can help speed approval—and get through the mountains of paperwork on lenders' desks—by carefully collecting the pertinent financial data, and making sure the loan officer gets it quickly.

Borrowers who refinance with their original lender may save on much red tape and some fees.

The Meyers Report compiled the following list of tips and items that borrowers will have to document when applying for a refinance or new mortgage at a new lender:

—Checkbook. Bring it with you when you first apply. Institutions will charge about $250 to process a loan application, and they often won't start the wheels moving until it's paid.

—Credit report. Get a copy of your credit record by contacting a credit reporting company in your area before you apply for a loan. You should know if there are any surprises before talking to a loan officer. You may want to take this step while you are still hunting a new lender, so you will be set when you apply.

—Employment. You will be asked to sign a verification form that will be sent to your employer. Know the name of a person at your company who verifies employment and alert them an inquiry is coming.

If you've been with your current company for less than two years, you should have the same information and personnel contact with your former employer.

—Income. You will need your federal income tax returns for the past two years, especially if you are self-employed. When stating current or expected income, be sure to include any commissions, bonuses or regular overtime pay. Child support and alimony also should be shown, whether you give it or get it.

—Bank accounts. Provide account or certificate numbers for your checking and savings, as well as the addresses of the financial institutions. You also should list any stock or bond holdings because they will increase your financial standing in the lender's eyes. Know where credit information from the institutions is given out; it may be the main office, not the branch office where you bank.

—Credit cards. Give account numbers of all your major cards and clean up any delinquencies.

—Outstanding loans. The account number and addresses of all lenders must be provided. This includes real estate and personal loans.

—Previous loans. A listing of loans that you have successfully retired is very helpful to your cause. Credit companies all too often do not have the information and don't report loans that are paid off.

—Earnest money. If your deposit is substantial, be prepared to document where the money came from. Bankers want to know that the money is yours, a gift or if it is borrowed. Bankers do not want additional leins on the property from someone who lent you money for the down payment. They want to know that you can afford the house that you intend to buy.

When supplying your lender with information, do not send original documents—copies are acceptable. Any papers mailed should be sent with a return-receipt request and be addressed to a specific person at the lending institution.

If there are any extenuating circumstances on questionable debts, tell your loan officer. Anything out of the ordinary that shows up on your credit report must be explained.

The limits recently have been changed from 33 percent of gross income for mortgage payments and 36 percent on total debt (including credit cards, for example) to 28 percent for mortgage payments and 36 percent on total debt.

This means that if your gross income is $2,000 per month, the highest monthly mortgage payment you may qualify for is $665 per month. Your total monthly debt payment cannot exceed $760 per month.

moving to Wauconda in the 1950's. Currently many types of cutlery are being produced, including chef's knives and a full line of sporting knives. Among their unique collection is a special patented style called Biocurve, which is designed to enable easier handling by persons with arthritis.—Photo by Jody Lewand.

Parkway To Open New Store

An independent Grayslake supermarket is expanding to Fox Lake.

Jerry Ming, owner and operator of Jerry's Parkway Foods, confirmed that he has purchased Best Value Food Stores, 75 S. Rte. 12, Fox Lake, from Scot Lad Inc.

Best Value will close operations at 5 p.m. Saturday, April 26. Ming said an extensive remodeling program will begin immediately with reopening as Jerry's Parkway Foods scheduled "within several days."

Besides the store at 10 N. Lake St., Grayslake, Ming also operates two supermarkets in Wisconsin. He is a native of Mundelein and resides with his family in Grayslake.

The Fox Lake store originally was built as an A&P Supermarket and later remodeled. Scot Lad, a major Chicago-area wholesaler, acquired the Fox Lake location when it purchased approximately two dozen A&P stores five years ago.

Fox Lake was operated as a company Scot Lad outlet.

Ming said that while he intends to retain as many of the present staff as possible, the new Fox Lake supermarket will undergo both a physical and merchandising change.

"We'll be offering shoppers in the Fox Lake area friendly service, cleanliness, highest quality and competitive pricing," declared Ming.

Girls Track Hopes For Top

Strengths in the sprints and field events could lead Grayslake High's girls track team to the top of the Northwest Suburban Conference this spring.

"I'd like to finish in the top two or three," coach Kathy Walterhouse said.

And to that end, the Rams are fielding a team with a mix of experience and youth.

"We're young but they were all out last year. A group of talented sophomores and juniors make up the team," Walterhouse said.

The Rams will be finding out just how they measure up against area competition at the Algonquin Jacobs co-ed meet April 26. After that meet, there is just one more triangular meet before the conference meet.

The Rams opened the season with a split against Round Lake and Johnsbury April 8.

Grayslake beat Round Lake 78-54 but lost to Johnsbury 80-53.

Earning first-place finishes for GCHS included the mile relay team and the 400-meter relay squad of Amy Formica, Diane Cesarone, Sue Kratavil and Nancy Brunner.

Anne Thayer won the shot and discus events. Gail Samuelson took the honors in the mile.

The 3,200 meter relay team of Lynn Mack, Samuelson, Gruce and Kelly Flynn also won.

The 1,600 meter relay team took first.

Against Johnsbury, a team Walterhouse said is at the top of the Northwest Suburban, the 800-meter relay team, Brunner in the 100-yard dash and the 800 meter relay team finished first. Thayer, whom Walterhouse said has a chance at a trip downstate to the state meet next month, won her specialties, the shot and discus.

The Grayslake-Carmel matchup boiled down to the high jump. Carmel took the event and won the dual 67-66.

"There were three girls who jumped 4-10 but the tie-breaker is number of attempts," Walterhouse said.

The 3,200 meter relay team finished first as did Brunner in the 100-meter dash and the 400 meter relay squad.

Grayslake finished one-two-three in the mile won by Samuelson.

Aim To Phase Out Stevenson

The Mundelein varsity baseball team faces Stevenson High School away on April 24, and will play at home against Fenton on April 29.

The Mustangs won one game and lost another in a doubleheader against the Warren Blue Devils on April 19. After coming through victoriously 10-0 in the first game, the Mustangs were beaten by their opponents 12-6 during the second.

Mustangs' senior pitcher Dan Word held off the Blue Devils to one hit through the six inning game. Word is currently 3-0 against other conference players.

He improved his overall record to 4-3 after striking out six and walking three.

Highlights of the first game included seven runs by the Mustangs during the third inning, and two-run singles by John Kazenas and John McNulty.

In the second game, the Mustangs were outslugged by the Blue Devils, with Warren sophomore Dere shelton making a home run, a triple and a double, with four RBI.

By the end of the first inning, the Blue Devils had scored seven runs.

Mundelein's record is now 3-2 in the North Suburban Conference League and 5-9 overall.

CLC Wins Two, Second In Skyway

by JOHN PHELPS

April 17, the CLC mens' baseball team handed Milwaukee Area Technical College a double-header drubbing. The Lancers combined hitting, pitching and running to come up with a 6-0 shutout in game one, and exploded in game two with a 16-2 whitewash.

"This was the kind of game we needed. We now have some big conference games coming up, and today we looked really good and hopefully we'll apply this kind of attack in our upcoming games," commented Lancer head coach, Bob Roth.

In game one, pitcher Al Galusha went a strong three innings, and Charley Eiserman picked up the last four innings to shut down MATC, thus picking up his first win of the season. Offensively, catcher Mike Foote was 1-for-3 with a triple and three RBI's, Gerrard Guistino 1-for-3 with a double and two RBI's, and Jeff Potts 2-for-3 including and RBI and run scored.

In the second game, the Lancers picked up where they left off, offensively and defensively. pitcher, Roger Knutel went three innings in the five-inning game to notch his first win of the year. Dan Novak came in for the final two innings to pick up the save.

On the offensive, several Lancers contributed to the slotter. Among them was Bob Becker, who was 2-for-4 with a double; Frank Diana, 1-for-2 and two runs scored; Mike Foote 1-for-3 with an RBI and run scored; Knufel, 2-for-4 with two RBI's and two runs scored; Steve Jarrell, 2-for-3, two RBI's and three runs scored; John May, 1-for-3 with a double and two RBI's; and Brian Skof with two RBI's.

Lake County also proved their speed on the bases, as in game one, Diana collected four stolen bases; Dan Novak, three; Travis Hudgins, Jeff Potts, Jarrell, and Guistino, two; Jarrell also picked up three stolen bases in game two.

With the sweep, CLC upped their record to 8-12 overall, and 4-1 in the Skyway Conference.

The Lancers slipped to a full-game behind Oakland, though, with a split against Morton Feb. 19. CLC lost the opener 11-5 before winning 5-1 in the nightcap.

CLC faces Malcom X April 24 before hosting Truman April 26 in Skyway Conference action at 12 noon.

MHS Ties For First

Mundelein's star senior pitcher Ellen Press made Mustang's coach Jim deRivera proud at the end of a doubleheader game against Warren. Final scores of the April 19 challenge were 12-5 and 8-7, with the Mustangs girls varsity softball team at the lead.

The team's record is now 5-1 which ties them for first with Antioch.

During the first inning, Press had nine hits, struck out six and walked none.

League Wins Elude Carmel

Carmel baseball coach Joe Pudlo hopes his forces 'had a learning experience in last week's East Suburban Catholic Conference play.

The Corsairs, after a 7-2 start, dropped two league games and three overall to fall to 7-5, 0-2 in the ESCC.

Carmel will be hoping it can regain pre-league form this week when it plays at St. Joseph April 26 after a non-conference battle at Round Lake April 24.

The Corsairs lost to Stevenson 4-1 April 16 before losing a doubleheader to Holy Cross 3-1 and 7-6.

"We did not play for five days and that hurt us. Our bats did not come around until the fifth inning of the second game against Holy Cross. We were not sharp physically or mentally. We can't get away with the things we were getting away with early," Pudlo said.

One of the bright spots in Carmel's week was Bob Langer's play. Langer, a sophomore, was three-for-four with two RBIs against Holy Cross. His day included a two-run homer. Langer is hitting 17-for-34, .500.

"It's great, especially for a sophomore," Pudlo said.

Hitting Comes Through For Grant's Bulldogs

Junior pitcher Joe Vocke got a crucial win as the Grant Bulldogs defeated the slumping Grayslake Rams 7-5 on April 16. The victory raised the Bulldogs conference record to 2-0.

Varsity baseball coach Fritz Kazlauskis predicted before the season that Grant could be an upset winner of the Northwest Suburban Conference if his junior pitchers came through. So far, they have.

The story of the Bulldogs up to this point has been outstanding hitting. In the game with Grayslake, second baseman Mike Kazlauskis had three hits including two triples. Third baseman Mike McDonald contributed strongly with three hits, also. Pitcher Joe Vocke helped his own cause with two hits.

The only dark cloud in the Bulldogs horizon is the number of make-up games they will have to play. Two games have been postponed due to inclement weather. Grant's first conference game with Round Lake ended in a 7-7 tie and will have to be finished upon the next meeting between the two teams.

For now, though, everything is coming together well in Grant's bid to be a dark-horse champion.

North American Tourism Boom Increasingly Assured

A North American tourism boom is increasingly assured as foreign complications continue to attack the structure of safety in the Mediterranean area.

Travel agents report 20 to 60 percent fewer bookings for locations such as Israel, Italy and Greece, despite intensive localized TV promotions.

Seasoned travelers acknowledge an uneasiness abroad that takes the edge off anticipated pleasure. Travel agents, while promoting the thought that dangers are overstated, agree that unrest and terrorism is changing America's travel interests. "I want to be safe" is the attitude expressed by many who have decided to stay at home.

This may be traced to last year's record of 20 hijackings and 14 cases of sabotage on scheduled flights. According to International Civil Aviation Assn. records, 411 deaths occurred in 1985 among 892 million passengers. Developments this year and now Libya, have further widened the tourism chasm.

One U.S. attraction sure to bring visitors to New York City, is the removal of scaffolding, unveiling the new look of our statuesque Liberty Lady. Though to be officially recognized on July 4, she is already attracting attention of travelers and other visitors.

Ad campaigns by the Disney Worlds and their many attractions are appealing to the American travel market with renewed emphasis.

Planners for the 1986 World Exposition in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, were in town last week with an update on the May 2 to Oct. 12 festivities. This big attraction sees its popularity growing substantially among American travelers.

Expo officials project increased attendance from 13 1/2 to 16 million, based on inquiry mail and phone calls, plus advance sales. The Expo site may be reached by car, rail, boat or air. Air Canada (800-422-6232) states direct service reservations are very popular, but they will also assist with connecting service.

Over 80 displays on the waterfront of Vancouver's False Creek, present the bulk of the Expo '86 show. It may well be "the event" of our North American tourism year. Tourism officials council attendees to allow time for visiting British Columbia's fantastic scenery, cities, villages and resort lodges.

Where is Vancouver? It's three hours north of Seattle, Wash. and is Canada's largest west coast city, lying between the sparkling Pacific Ocean and the ruggedly beautiful coastal Canadian mountain range...a more scenic location can hardly be found.

Beginning May 2, three-day admission passes will advance to $34.95 for adults and

Tips To Make Car Vacation Much Easier

Vacation time? After the car has been checked over and given a clean bill of health and the trunk has been equipped for on-the-road emergencies with space left over for luggage and picnic gear—now it's time to pack the extra items that will make this vacation trip more fun.

The driver who plans to travel alone to a vacation destination may be most in need of entertainment en route:

—Tapes top the list of suggestions for him or her, and a huge variety is available. You can listen to all kinds of music or hear a book read aloud. You can learn a foreign language from a tape, or put together a program of your own audio favorites.

—A cellular phone allows the workaholic to keep in touch with the office, and the lonely driver to call friends along the way.

—Passengers have a wider choice of travel items, like...

—A "tummy" TV for those who don't want to miss a single episode of a favorite soap or one inning of a Chicago Cubs baseball game.

—Some of the books and magazines you didn't have time to read during the rest of the year.

—Trivia games on small decks of cards designed specifically for travel with no board required.

—Puzzles or hand-held video games.

Parents planning a long trip in a car with small children may need more entertaining suggestions than this newspaper has room to print, but here are a few:

—Hand-held video games—and ear plugs for the adults who have to listen to the sounds these games make when played.

—Tapes chosen by the children.

—Books—comic and other kinds.

—Crayons, coloring books and plain white paper to draw on.

—Fruit or other snacks, to reduce the number of requests for stops to buy junk food.

—A package containing a surprise gift for each child, to be opened along the way.

—School books, as a reminder to bored and cranky kids that things could indeed be worse.

—A map (not the one the driver will be consulting) on which they can follow the route to their destination.

YES, YOU CAN!
You may have seen many new satellite earth stations, or "dishes," installed in our area recently and asked yourself, "Are those dishes really worth it? Can I have one of those?" Well, happily the answer to both questions is YES. In 1984, the U.S. Congress approved home earth stations designed for the reception of satellite broadcasts. Not only are dishes legal to use, they are affordable, too. You can enjoy the freedom and wide variety of satellite television today.

Youth Network To Sponsor Project

The Youth Service Network (YSN) of Lake County is sponsoring its second annual "Teen Recognition Project" for Lake County teenagers between the ages of 13 and 19.

YSN encourages adults such as parents, teachers, clergymen, neighbors, relatives, or family friends to nominate teens who they feel have excelled in such areas as community service, peer leadership, academic achievement and volunteer activities.

Teen recognition nomination forms can be obtained by contacting Dr. Steven Peters at the Lake County Health Dept. at (312) 689-6725. The deadline for submitting teen recognition nominations will be May 9.

Each teenager nominated will receive a recognition packet that includes a recognition certificate with the name of the adult nominator, a congratulatory letter and a recognition button.

Finalists will be selected by the teen recognition committee during the weeks of May 12 through May 23. Winners will receive a $100 U.S. savings bond award at the awards ceremony, which will be held on Thursday, June 19, at 7 p.m. in the library atrium of the College of Lake County in Grayslake. Lieutenant Governor George Ryan is expected to be a presenter at the awards ceremony.

The Youth Service Network is in need of financial support from members of the business community and private citizens in order to purchase the savings bond awards for the project finalists.

YSN is asking for groups and/or individuals to sponsor the purchase of a savings bond or bonds for the youth finalists. Each $100 U.S. savings bond will be purchased for a price of $50. Sponsorship/contributions to the YSN bond fund are tax deductible.

Those individuals and organizations who contribute to the YSN Teen Recognition Project bond fund will be given public recognition at the June 19 awards ceremony, have their name(s) listed in the program brochure and will be cited in post-awards ceremony publicity articles.

Persons or groups wishing to sponsor the purchase of a bond should contact Peters at the Lake County Health Dept. at (312) 689-6725 as soon as possible.

Students Eligible For Leadership Trip

Students from the State of Illinois are eligible to participate in an 8,500-mile tour of the United States this summer. Young people with a flair for leadership are encouraged to apply for the 1986 National Student Leadership Trip.

Starting in Washington, D.C. on June 28, 40 high school students and six adult leaders will begin a trek across America. For the next six weeks, the group of future leaders will visit communities in every region of the country, meeting with local leaders and developing a better sense of their own leadership abilities.

The group will visit more than 24 states and come into contact with almost every type of locality...from farms to cities to Indian Reservations.

This will be a highly active group of students. They will be camping in national and state parks along the way, cooking most of their own meals, hiking into the Grand Canyon, white-water rafting, meeting with farmers in Kansas and planning their own daily agendas as the trip moves across America.

In addition, the students will learn leadership skills in a series of workshops to be conducted by national youth leadership experts.

The program is sponsored by the National Student Leadership Center, a project of Sagamore Institute in Raquette Lake, N.Y. This is a non-profit, tax-exempt training center that works with the national youth organizations to improve leadership training programs. The trip has been offered in three previous years. Most of the students are sponsored in part by local community service organizations.

Crane Sees LaRouche As 'Typical Nazi'

By JOHN STEINKE
(Political Columnist)

Republican Congressman Philip M. Crane has served in the House of Representatives for the past 16 years. He is the spokesperson for GOP conservatism. Crane is the fourth ranking Republican on the House Ways and Means Committee, which handles tax legislation. In 1980, he was an unsuccessful candidate for the Republican presidential nomination. Party conservatives supported Ronald Reagan over Crane's candidacy. In an exclusive interview with 'Lakeland Newspapers, Crane offered these observations:

1. EX-VICE-PRESIDENT SPIRO AGNEW:

Congressman Crane stated that he and his family had spent time with former Vice-President Spiro T. Agnew in Palm Springs, Calif. In 1973, President Richard M. Nixon permitted Vice-President Spiro Agnew "to twist slowly in the wind" to divert public attention from the Watergate affair. Crane asserted that Agnew "was bitter" because he believed that his resignation for income tax evasion was orchestrated by the Nixon administration. The Illinois Representative contended that "the tragedy of Watergate" blocked the election of Agnew to the presidency in 1976. "Wouldn't it have been wonderful if the son of an impoverished Greek immigrant had been elected to the White House?" Crane acknowledged that Agnew and Nixon hadn't had any personal contact since the Vice-President's resignation on Oct. 10, 1973. The Agnews and the Nixons haven't socialized together" even though Nixon has visited Palm Springs on a number of occasions. Agnew "is wheeling and dealing" as a lobbyist on behalf of countries like Saudi Arabia.

2. PARTY CONTROL OF THE U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

During the past 54 years, the Republicans have controlled the U.S. House of Representatives for only four years: 1946-1948; 1952-1954. Congressman Crane maintained that "65 conservative Democrats" were preparing to switch to the Republican party. Their defections would have assured the GOP control of the House of the Representatives. The Watergate affair (1973-74) discouraged these conservative Democrats from changing parties. Crane observed that most of these conservatives have departed the House, and have been replaced by Democratic loyalists. Thus, Republicans will have to await the 1992 reapportionment of the U.S. House of Representatives to capture control of Congress. The state legislatures have the constitutional responsibility to redistrict U.S. House seats following the census.

3. LYNDON H. LAROCHE EXTREMISTS

In the March 18 primary, two Lyndon H. LaRouche's extremists won two statewide Democratic nominations. They included Mark Fairchild for lieutenant governor and Janice A. Hart for Secretary of State. Both candidates have been condemned by the party leadership. Crane stated that LaRouche was a professional extremist, who was a former Communist.

The Illinois Congressman commented: "LaRouche is your typical Nazi. He is brown on the outside, but red on the inside." Crane asserted that a former CIA agent had advised him that LaRouche "was funded by Libyan money." In addition, the LaRouche people disseminated "Soviet disinformation" (lies). Crane said that the LaRouche movement gave "legitimacy" to Communist propaganda in order to attract unsuspecting conservatives to their cause.

4. 1986 ELECTIONS

Crane contended that he didn't regret his decision to seek reelection to the U.S. House of Representatives in the Nov. 4 election. Crane had been encouraged to run against Democratic Senator Alan J. Dixon by GOP Governor Jim Thompson. Crane asserted that two factors influenced his judgement to reject a senatorial race. First, his 19-year-old daughter is recuperating from a serious automobile accident that she suffered last year. Second, it would have cost the Republicans $10 million to support a Crane challenge to Senator Dixon. Crane observed, "Ten million dollars will support 20 Republican candidates running for the House of Representatives. I didn't want to divert money from Republican candidates campaigning for the House." He predicted that the Republicans will sweep Illinois in the general election. Crane observed, (Governor Jim) Thompson is home free." And he stated, "Senator Alan Dixon is worried about his reelection prospects."

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK.

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services.

Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Health Department Cautions Pet Owners

The Lake County Health Dept. has received laboratory confirmation of a rabid cat from the Mundelein area. The cat was not vaccinated against rabies and many people are now undergoing costly treatment.

This is yet another example of the importance of rabies vaccinations for dogs and cats. There are two major ways of avoiding the transmission of rabies from wild animals to man:

-People must avoid direct contact with skunks, bats, raccoons and foxes.

-Domestic animals, like dogs and cats, who have direct and frequent contact with people, must be properly immunized against rabies so that the illness cannot be transmitted from wild animals to people through their pets.

Owners who fear that their pet may have been in contact with a rabid animal should call the health department at (312) 689-6424 for advice, and any person who gets bitten by a wild animal or a pet should seek immediate medical attention and call a veterinarian or the health department regarding the animal.

During the approaching warmer months, the risk of rabies spreading increases as wild animals are more active, bats are migrating through the area and pets and their owners are out of doors more often.

Vaccinating the family cat against rabies is just as important as vaccinating the dog. Nationally, there have been more cases of rabid cats than dogs.

Vaccination information is available from your veterinarian. Proof of vaccination (a Lake County rabies tag) must be worn at all times by dogs and cats. The tag not only provides proof of vaccination in case the animal bites a person, but also serves to trace ownership in case the pet is lost, as the Lake County Health Dept. keeps a file for each registered pet according to tag number.

Tags are available from the health department and from certain municipalities upon presentation of a vaccination certificate (obtained from your veterinarian when the pet is given the rabies vaccine) and a fee.

Pet owners may call the health department at (312)

689-6424 for fee and municipal information. They may obtain a tag by mailing or bringing the vaccination certificate provided by the veterinarian, and the correct fee, to the Rabies Control office of the Lake County Health Dept., Belvidere Medical Building, 2400 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan, or to their participating municipal office.

The Rabies Control Program of the Lake County Health Dept. maintains bite investigation, tag registration and animal warden services. For information on these services, or to report an animal bite, a stray animal, or a lost or found pet, call the Lake County Health Dept. at (312) 689-6424, or (312) 526-5336.

The animal shelter is at 27361 N. Forest Preserve Rd. (west of the intersection of Fairfield Rd. and Rte. 176) in Wauconda.

Forest Preserve To Hold Lottery

The Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. announces its 1986 Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) lottery drawing to be held May 3 at 10 a.m. The drawing will be conducted at the district headquarters in Libertyville.

The YCC program is funded through donations and contributions from local businesses and individuals. The eight-week job opportunities for 30 Lake County high school students will begin in June. The jobs provide young men and women with opportunities to gain meaningful work experience as well as an awareness and understanding of the natural environment of the forest preserves.

Donald Strenger, president of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. stated, "The district is proud to once again offer these opportunities to the youth of Lake County. More than 30 sponsors last year helped to provide funding for this program. The accomplishments of the crew members of the Youth Conservation Corps greatly benefited the forest preserves and the many visitors." Applications are available at the Forest Preserve district office, 2000 N. Milwaukee, Libertyville and will be accepted until May 2.

Fair Employment

The first federal activity to promote fair employment practices was the Fair Employment Practice Commission in 1941, which sought to eliminate discrimination in hiring in the defense industry, according to "Labor Firsts in America," a publication of the U.S. Department of Labor.

Buying A Home In Round Lake Beach?

Portions of the city are targeted for low-interest financing!

If the home you wish to buy is located in a targeted area, and you meet program guidelines, you can receive a 30-year, fixed-rate mortgage at 9.8%*.

You need not be a first-time home buyer, and purchase price limits are as high as $174,790 for a four-unit building.

To participate in this program the following guidelines must be met:

- The home being purchased must be located in a targeted area.
- Your gross annual household income must not exceed $55,300.
- A minimum downpayment of 5% is required.
- You must have an acceptable credit history and sufficient income to meet program underwriting standards.
- The home being purchased must serve as your principal residence.

New or existing single-family homes, townhouses, condominiums and two- to four-unit buildings qualify for this special financing. Purchase price limits, however, are applicable.

Applications are being taken at participating lenders on a first-come, first-served basis, until all funds are allocated. You will be charged a non-refundable loan origination fee of $275 at the time of application.

9.8%***
FIXED
RATE
FINANCING
No first-time home buyer restrictions

For more information, the names of participating lenders and to find out if the home you're interested in is within a targeted area, call the Home Line during business hours at 1-800-942-8439. When you make your call, be sure to have the exact address and zip code of the home.

Once you've determined that the home you wish to buy is in a targeted area, you may apply for a loan at a participating lender. At that time you'll need an executed residential purchase contract for the home.

Money under this program is distributed on a first-come, first-served basis and funds are limited. So, apply as soon as possible.

The Targeted Home Loan Program is offered by the Illinois Housing Development Authority in conjunction with various local lenders. Targeted areas are periodically determined by the U.S. Treasury Department. Approximately 15% of the state's population lives in a targeted area. If you'd like information regarding targeted areas in other Illinois cities, call the Home Line.

Targeted
Home Loan Program

*The Annual Percentage Rate (APR) will vary within a range of 9.975% and 10.41%, depending upon the loan to value ratio and the date of closing within a given month. The exact APR on each individual mortgage loan will be disclosed prior to closing.

LaRouche Finds Role Fanning Hate, Violence

by JOHN STEINKE

In last month's Illinois primary election, Democratic voters nominated two political crackpots for lieutenant governor and secretary of state. Both candidates are disciples of extreme-right cultist, Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. Mark Fairchild, a 28-year-old electrical engineer, won the lieutenant governor's spot. Janice Hart, 31, is the new Democratic nominee for secretary of state. She has been a LaRouche supporter since she was 17 years old. Last week, we examined the political background of LaRouche. Now we will explore the ultra-right philosophy of his movement.

LaRouche is a former Marxist, who now supports radical-right policies. After running for president on the U.S. Labor Party ticket in 1976, his rhetoric turned openly anti-Semitic. He has described "The Holocaust" as a "hoax." (The Holocaust occurred during World War II when Adolf Hitler and the Nazis murdered six million Jews in Europe.) His newspaper, New Solidarity, tells followers that Zionism was "an evil cult," that the Holocaust was "mythical" and that B'nai B'rith "resurrects the tradition of the Jews who demanded the crucifixion of Jesus Christ." These commentaries are absolute nonsense.

Steinke On Politics

LaRouche believes that there is a world-wide conspiracy, orchestrated by Italian aristocrats, Jewish bankers, Chinese intelligence agents and Queen Elizabeth II. This cabal wants to "deindustrialize" the free world by making it dependent on drugs. He attributes global problems to conspiracies of Zionists, communists and bankers.

Much of LaRouche's rhetoric engages in vitriolic attacks on political leaders. He has called both Walter Mondale and former Sec. of State Henry Kissinger "agents of influence" for the Soviet Union. LaRouche has repeatedly claimed to be targeted for assassination by officials from the queen of England, whom he has called a drug pusher, to the mayor of Keene, N.H.

LaRouche also recommends a massive military build-up to prevent a Soviet nuclear attack against the United States. He endorses the increased use of nuclear energy. He supports huge engineering projects around the world, including the construction of a second Panama Canal.

CLC Grads Succeed At Big-Time School

The College of Lake County ranks third in the number of engineering transfer students at the University of Illinois, Urbana, over the past five years.

"But even more impressive is the fact that no other college has fewer transfers with grade problems," according to Carl Painter, associate dean, engineering division. Carl Larsen, dean of engineering at the U. of I., terms the success rate "remarkable," Painter said.

Six of these successful CLC engineering students, four men and two women, presently enrolled in engineering degree programs at the Urbana campus, visited engineering classes at the Grayslake college just prior to spring break to share their transfer experiences.

James McClelland, aeronautical engineering major and 1984 CLC graduate, will complete his bachelor's degree in May with a perfect record. He found the "one on one instruction at CLC" to be a real help in transferring.

Steve Craft, August 1985 CLC grad and aerospace engineering major from Round Lake Heights, "was able to work at CLC and save money." He found the biggest difficulty in transferring was an extremely heavy homework load.

Russell A. Nygaard, civil engineering major from Grayslake, said that CLC transferees were asked questions about basics by those who began their engineering programs at the four-year university. "At CLC the basics are really important."

Carolyn Shaffer, electrical engineering major from Riverwoods and 1984 CLC graduate, found CLC to be a "teaching school."

Jane Keuss, from Grayslake, and Steve Keller, of Wauconda, both mechanical engineering majors, agreed that the transition from high school to college was not as abrupt as it would have been at a large school like the University of Illinois.

The graduates addressed specific courses advisable to take in the two-year CLC program where individual attention is available as well as cooperative work experience and campus life. All of the graduates agreed that they were not at an academic disadvantage by transferring into the engineering program.

For more information on engineering transfer programs at CLC, call Carl Painter, associate dean of engineering, math and physical sciences, at (312) 223-6601, ext. 498.

Return To Speak

From left, Gayle Dewar, Lake Villa, and Russell Nygaard, Grayslake, both College of Lake County (CLC) graduates who now attend the University of Illinois, Urbana, were among successful graduates who returned to speak to current CLC students.

Lambs To Honor Regenstein May 22

The Lambs, Inc. will honor Joseph Regenstein, Jr. for his outstanding humanitarianism at The Lambs Good Shepherd Award dinner on Thursday, May 22, at The Lambs in Libertyville.

The dinner will also celebrate the 25th anniversary of The Lambs, a non-profit agency serving mentally retarded adults since 1961.

Regenstein is the chairman and chief executive officer of Arvey Corp., a multi-product manufacturing and marketing enterprise headquartered in Chicago. He is also president, director and one of the founding members of the Regenstein Foundation, a philanthropic organization which provides funding assistance to community service organizations throughout the Chicagoland area.

Lambs Honorary Board Member and former First Lady Betty Ford will return to The Lambs to deliver the evening's keynote address. Ford, a past Good Shepherd Award recipient herself, has participated in two other very significant events in The Lambs' history: the opening of its first residential facility in 1975 and the opening of The Lambs Country Inn Restaurant in 1980.

The Lambs is located at the junction of I-94 and Rte. 176, two miles east of Libertyville. For further information, contact Regina Lemke at (312) 362-4636.

Name Schaffer To Committee

Senator Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) has been named to a new Senate Special Committee assigned to study consumer banks.

His appointment was announced by Senate Republican Leader James "Pete" Philip (Wood Dale), who said Schaffer's business experience and knowledge of state finance will be invaluable to the work of the committee. Schaffer serves on both Senate Appropriations Committees.

"The concept of consumer banks is receiving more and more attention, and I think it is important to consider how this type of financial institution could affect traditional banks and savings and loan establishments," Schaffer said. "Consumer banks do not fit into either category because they either do not make commercial loans or they do not offer checking accounts for customers."

Schaffer said that consumer banks, often referred to as non-bank banks, fall between the cracks of both federal regulations and state statutes. "They may offer a wide variety of services, but as long as they do not provide both commercial loans and checking accounts, they are exempted from most banking regulations," he said. "It is important to find out whether this type of business should be permitted in Illinois and if so, what state regulations are needed to protect consumer bank customers."

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY SALOME

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) While all around you seems chaotic, don't take it on the lam, Lamb. Hold on. Help work things out. You'll be far ahead after the dust finally settles.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) To err is human and to forgive is typically Bovine. But while you forgive, don't forget how those problems were caused if you want to avoid repetition.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Artistic influences are strong. Indulge your creative impulses in whatever way leads to fulfillment, whether you sculpt a statue or redecorate your home.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) A romantic situation may take more of your emotional input than you may want to invest at this time. Reassess partner's contribution to this relationship.

Leo (Jul. 23-Aug. 22) Making sweeping changes sounds like a good idea, but be careful you don't throw out something today that you'll be looking for tomorrow. Move carefully, Pussycat.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) A stubborn individual poses some problems, but you can win your case if you show patience and offer full explanations to bolster your position.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Someone who seemed a bit remote wants to become a lot closer. Show some encouragement and don't be surprised by the rush of attention that quickly comes your way.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) News about a family member can be unsettling, but get the full story before you act too quickly. Often, things are less worrisome than they seem at first.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You're going to love this period. Romantic signs are strong. Home-front situations become more harmonious. On-the-job tensions give way to understanding.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Complications that could wreck your travel plans can be avoided. Have your car checked for possible hidden safety defects. Confirm reservations early.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Just when you think you can't reach any further to touch that special person's heart, stretch out just a little more. The results should prove rewarding.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) A child provides a source of pride. Show how you feel by showering generous amounts of affection on the youngster. Your relationship continues to grow stronger.

Christian Life Church's Congregation Growing

Christian Life Fellowship (Assemblies of God) of 389 Lake St., Antioch celebrated its second birthday on April 1.

How does a church begin in the late Twentieth century in Illinois?

First of all God laid a burden on the hearts of many believers for an Assembly of God Church in Antioch; then He selected a church "to mother the babe." Calvary Temple of Lake Villa became the sponsor of the infant group.

They encouraged a number of their members who lived in the Antioch area to help form the nucleus of Christians from which the new congregation would grow, and they also pledged to support the new work with $1,000 a month for the pastor's salary and the lease of the building for the first year.

At the end of that time the amount was decreased as less help was required and by the beginning of 1986, the support was entirely withdrawn as the Christian Life Fellowship was self supporting. Other churches contributed money, church pews, sound systems and an organ.

The church began April 1, 1984 under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. Jeffrey Brussaly at a store front building at 389 Lake St. with a seating capacity of 50.

This is Pastor Brussaly's first experience as a senior pastor as he received his Master of Divinity degree from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, in June 1983 and served as an associate pastor at Calvary Community Church in Buffalo Grove until he came to Antioch.

The store front building at 389 Lake St. was filled to capacity the first Sunday and it soon became necessary to lease the adjacent space for a sanctuary with the congregation maintaining a steady growth since then. Recently the following members were added to the Fellowship: Larry and Terri Knoblock, John and Judi Barron, Sharon and Richard Westbrook, Chuck and Kathy Soper, Laura and Robert Labichi, Charles and Cova Jean Brown, Alyce Gilbertsen, Liane Kaufman, Edith Gibbs, Nancy Powers, Alice Atwell and Ila Greinke.

Christian Life Fellowship is served by an official board of three members, Carole Barron, Tom Handley and Jeff Rosinski with Edith Gibbs as senior advisor.

The various departments of the church are headed by the following people: Women's Ministries, Carole Barron; Men's Ministries, Robert Labichi; Sonlight (Children's Midweek Ministries), Gwen Brussaly; Sunday School, Edith Gibbs; Jr. High Youth, Crissy Handley; Sr. High Youth, Diane Pearson; Puppet Ministry, Shirley and Jeff Rosinski; Pre-school Ministry, Richard Biank; Nursery, Marguerite Chateau; and Christian Life Players, Charles Brown.

The rapid growth of the Christian Life Fellowship has caused crowded conditions in all areas of the program, so the congregation is praying for a place to build a church where they may have unlimited space for growth and improvement to carry out the commission of the Master.

Elect McCarley Phi Beta Kappa

Robin L. McCarley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyndel McCarley of Lake Villa, is among 16 students elected to the honorary society of Phi Beta Kappa at Lake Forest College.

The candidates were nominated on the basis of academic excellence, faculty recommendations and the variety of courses taken outside their major. The committee also considers the amount of independent study and research done, such as senior theses or other projects.

McCarley, a chemistry major, is a graduate of Antioch High School.

Educators Set Dinner Meeting

The annual Elementary/Secondary Board of Education and Administration dinner meeting is planned for Tuesday, April 29, in the high school cafeteria. Dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p.m., with the program to follow.

The program will feature the Antioch Community High School fine arts department. The show choir and the jazz ensemble will perform various numbers from this year's variety show.

Invited are personnel representing: Antioch, Emmons, Faith Evangelical Lutheran, Grass Lake, Lake Villa, Millburn, Newport, Prince of Peace and St. Peter's elementary schools and Antioch Community High School.
